

Character Action Media

March for Our Lives – Citizenship in Action

Primary Virtues

Citizenship: the duties, rights, and privileges that come from being citizen of a nation, state or city

Duty: something that one is expected or required to do according to one's own standards, moral beliefs or legal obligation, especially as it relates to being a citizen

Secondary Virtues

Caring: a caring person lives with empathy in trying to understand another person's situation; compassion in desiring to help others, and then with generosity in acting to help

Solidarity: unity from a shared common purpose and / or interest; active loyalty within a group; mutual support within a group; being present with others

Respect for Ourselves / Others: showing full appreciation of the worth and dignity of ourselves and others, and other people's views on various issues

Wisdom: ability to apply knowledge, experience, understanding in ways that are effective and good.
The ability to discern or judge what is true, right, lasting
Hope: confident expectation of the fulfillment of a goal or wish.