

We'll Walk Together – Solidarity and Compassion are Stronger than Violence:

An inspiring story of one young man who sparked a movement of solidarity and compassion through one simple act against violence.

Primary Virtues / Character Traits

Empathy: trying to understand another person's situation, entering into the feeling or spirit of others and imagining yourself in another person's situation.

Compassion: feeling of sympathy for the distress of others, with the desire to help

Solidarity: unity from a shared common purpose and / or interest; active loyalty within a group; mutual support within a group; being present with others

Duty: something that one is expected or required to do according to one's own standards, moral or legal obligation, especially as it relates to one's status as a citizen and / or member of various communities.

Secondary Virtues / Character Traits

Responsibility: accepting and meeting the demands of our duty in life, being accountable, pursuing excellence

Respect for Others: showing full appreciation of the worth and dignity of others; living by "the golden rule": do unto others as you would want done unto you

Justice: fair treatment, due reward or punishment in accordance with honor, standards, or law. A just person works to give others the opportunity to have what they need to live with dignity and to improve their lives.